

DEMOCRATS GET TAX JOBS.

Smith Will Give State Positions to the Loyal.

ALBANY, June 24.—Delay in perfecting the organization of the new State Income Tax Department with its $300,000 payroll is said to be due to efforts by Gov. Smith to insure to Democrats positions in the department. Under the law the Governor, with Chairman of the Senate Finance and Assembly Ways and Means Committees, must approve the organization of the department. Deputy State Comptroller Mark Graves, James A. Wendell and William J. Maier, with William Boardman, in charge of the Comptroller's New York office, are in Washington making themselves familiar with the methods of the Federal income tax system.

2,546 wool-and-fibre and all-fibre RUGS

these are better rugs, at prices
LESS than those not so good

How it happened

These rugs are an experiment on the part of a mill to produce something superior in wool-and-fibre and all-fibre rugs. The only reason that we are able to sell them at such remarkably low prices is because they are too good.

That sounds like a paradox, but—They were so superior to the usual grade of rugs of this kind that the manufacturer was unable to sell them in the open market at competing prices. So he decided to dispose of them at a sacrifice to a store that was large enough to handle the entire quantity.

The cash resources of this store were found equal to the situation and we purchased them all—a total of 2,546 rugs.

The rugs are exceptional in coloring and design, including copies of Persian and Chinese patterns, some with plain centres and attractive borders. They are seamless and reversible, the color effect being reversed on the left side. They are excellent rugs from the viewpoints of appearance and durability.

The prices at which we will sell these rugs are less than the prices of the inferior grades of rugs of this type.

At $14.48 you can buy a heavier and better rug in the popular 9x12 size than you could buy at $16.34 for an inferior grade. We need hardly emphasize the fact, then, that this is one of the opportunities that "come once in a lifetime."
